Ten Second Book Review

At a time in England where even praying the Lord’s Prayer in your home was a crime punishable by death, courageous men promoted the translation of the Bible into English and used it to teach common people to read. This is the historical backdrop to The Daring Mission of William Tyndale by Steven J. Lawson. The book comes from a series entitled Long Line of Godly Men, and includes profiles of other giants of the faith: hymn-writer Isaac Watts, Scottish reformer John Knox, Bible expositor John Calvin, and 19th century preacher Charles Spurgeon.
